

K-Love serves my family by providing appropriate music for myself and my kids. As a community it provides free updates on family community events. We need to have an alternative as a community free from influences that are viewed as harmful by most of the community and families.